ABOUT THE PROMOTER, MR SMITH O'CONNOR

Mr Smith O'Connor is an entrepreneurial investor who wants to 'give back' by creating events that help transform lives for the better.

Mr O'Connor has a long history of event creation - but this Divorce Fair is his first in the UK, providing a safe space for separating people to access all the legal, financial, parenting and wellbeing guidance that they need.

He himself has been divorced - more than once! - and he has maintained healthy co-parenting relationships with the mothers of his children. Smith believes that his Divorce Fair in Kensington will help divorcing couples to transition out of their marriages as successfully as he has, focusing always on keeping things amicable for the sake of the children.
